2012–2013 District Student Results (DSR) File Format Overview

This document contains information regarding the District Student Results (DSR) and School Student Results (SSR) file format. Previously, this information was provided in a spreadsheet known as the Universal File Format (UFF). The file format works for any test, subject or grade and should accommodate all current tests..

Descriptions of the three other sections in this document:

- The District Student Results Format section describes the fields, positions, and field lengths of the DSR files that districts can download from MDE Secured Reports. The DSR is a Tab Delimited file that makes for easier importation into various software applications.

- The Score Label Definitions section has a detailed list of each score and its label for a given test, subject and grade. For efficiency and storage of files, a given score field may contain different information depending on the subject and grade of the test. For example, in the GRAD DSR, Score 1 for mathematics and reading is the scale score (SSCO) while Score 1 for writing is the student's raw score (RSCO). In the MCA-III DSR, Scores 1 to 3 are the same for all grades and subjects and begin to vary with Scores 4 and higher.

- The Score Min Max section lists the minimum and maximum scores for each reporting category for a given test year.

What's new for 2012-2013?

- The Alternate ACCESS for ELLs had its first administration. Performance levels on the Alternate ACCESS are reported as 2-character alphanumeric values. In order to fit them into single-character Achievement Level (for overall scores) and Score Characteristic (for Composite record subscores) fields on the DSR/SSR, Alternate ACCESS performance levels have been recoded: A=A1, B=A2, C=A3, 1=P1, 2=P2, 3=P3.

- The Reading MCA-III, MOD-III, and MTAS-III tests had their initial administration. Reading MCA-III sub-strand scores are reported as scale scores on a 1 to 9 metric.

- Now that Excel worksheet versions of DSR and SSR data downloads are available, the UFF is no longer required to facilitate import of tab delimited files.

If you have questions about the file format, please contact mde.testing@state.mn.us.

#5	Test Score (2 implied decimal places)
	Each test score is multiplied by 100.
	Example: 000550=5.5
	No conversion is needed to this score if calculating percent correct for raw scores: divide score by maximum statewide score.
